Sunday 26th February, 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A), The Temptation in the Wilderness, Mt 5:38-48

Responsorial Psalm : Have mercy on us, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory! Man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Communion Procession Refrain (St Mary's): Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord, the goodness of the Lord.

The Season of Lent once again sees us enter into more solemn liturgy: with the altar bedecked in purple, the glorious Gloria suspended, flowers noticeable by their absence, we forego singing Alleluia and thus the Gospel Acclamation changes, and hymns are chosen of a more somber nature. It is also appropriate to sing the Latin chants provided in the Missal. It is a season when silence reasserts itself. To enable this Lenten atmosphere to deepen in our Sunday Liturgy the post Communion Hymn will be replaced by silent thanksgiving. In St Mary's the Communion Refrain will change and will cease once the last person has received Communion to allow for silent thanksgiving.

Co-creators

Jesus is tempted to use creation just for himself.

This can happen with money, other people, the environment and religion. We are called to look after God's creation, not control it.

To be co-workers with God is our call – to focus on people as well as plans, to feel the needs here and abroad.

One view of God is that he looks after the world for good or bad, and we are just the receivers. The other is that we are co-workers in developing the world and God's creation. Jesus was tempted to throw himself away from the world as he knew it, but he did not. He would live by the word of God, and God would care for him as for the parents in the first reading.

'A Christian who doesn't safeguard creation, who doesn't make it flourish, is a Christian who isn't concerned with God's work, that work born of God's love for us' (Pope Francis, 2015).

The temptation to Jesus was to take him off the path of his father. Like him, we are often tempted to use the creation of God just for our benefit. Our call is to be co-creators of the world with God.

Imagine a garden where everything is beautiful. It is the 'creation' of a gardener.

Then imagine that someone has ruined one corner of it

– notice the difference.

Apply this to how we treat God's creation.

May we care for your creation, O Lord, with the love you have Money Matters: Each parish has submitted its end of year accounts to the Diocesan Office, and has had an internal audit conducted by the Diocesan Accountant and her assistant.

Internal Audits: "A review of the accounting records of St Mary's, St Leonard & St Fergus and St Columba was carried out by the diocesan accountants and no matters of error came to their attention. This provides reasonable belief the accounting records are kept in accordance to Accounts Regulations.

Melissa and Lily wish to express particular thanks to all those involved in the meticulous financial record keeping of the parishes from Counters, Cash Depositing, Recording, Gift Aid and OPAS input." (Melissa Walton Diocesan Accountant)
