This week Structural Engineers did an invasive investigation into the buttresses that bedeck our beautiful church of St Mary's. These buttresses are constructed around a metal bar that have corroded over the last 158 years and as a result the stonework cracks and crumbles around them. Restoring these will be a major part of St Mary's Restoration, and will be a considerable factor in the final cost. Please keep this in your prayers as the grant providers consider the engineers' report.

Thanks to all of those who donate food and toiletries for distribution from the Church House Door.

Please don't be shy to approach a member of The Society of Saint Vincent De Paul (SVDP) or Fr Jim in confidence.

Thanks to those who have responded to Sid Grants' appeal for new members to St Mary's conference.

Mgr Aldo Angelosanto represented Scotland at a recent meeting of more than 200 Parish Priests from all over the world. They met to discuss the Synodal Journey that the Church is on: a journey instigated by Pope Francis that aims to make the Church more sensitive to the needs of the People of God through listening to their cares and concerns.

During this meeting the delegates met with Pope Francis. The photograph captures the moment that Mgr Aldo met the Holy Father.

What did Mgr Aldo say to the Pope that made him laugh so heartily

(from Mgr Aldo himself)...when the Pope realised that he was from Scotland he asked: "Where's the whisky?" To which Mgr replied, "Holy Father, I brought a bottle of whisky but we've drunk it!"

Aldo had brought a bottle of whisky and shortbread to share with his confreres during a social evening celebrating their different cultures...by the time he'd met the Pope the social evening had come and gone...as had the whisky! Thank God for Aldo and the Pope's sense of humours...May God bless them both.

Mgr Aldo has agreed to come and Confirm our young people on Tuesday 21st May at 6pm. Please come along and prayerfully support the children.

GLANCING THOUGHTS—TRAVELLING MERCIES

In the Gospel Reading, before his ascension Christ gives his disciples a last command. Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel. And he adds a list of things that will characterize those of his followers who obey this command: they will drive out demons, speak new languages, handle snakes safely, drink deadly things without harm, and heal the sick by the laying on of hands.

Why this list? Isn't it supposed to be just love that characterizes Christ's followers? Well, think of it this way.

Once when one of my children was traveling to Bangladesh, I made a list of dos and don'ts for him. It was a list intended to help keep him safe.

Finding housing with English speakers was on the list, so that there wouldn't be language problems. "Don't drink the water!" was definitely on the list, and so was "Stay away from people who are obviously sick!" The list finished with this prohibition: "Whatever you do, don't come into contact with the ground!" I know it sounds ridiculous; but hookworm is endemic in that part of the world, and you can get full of worms if you let a body part with an open wound come into contact with infected ground.

You can see that what was on my list of things to worry about are on Christ's list of things not to worry about: language problems, deadly drinks, sicknesses, even snakes—well, hookworms, anyway. (Demons weren't on my list, but maybe they would have been if I could have thought of anything to say about them.)

So the things on Christ's list are the things that you (or your mother) might worry about if you were travelling in dangerous places. Since Christ is commanding his followers to head out to all the world, maybe it is only fair of him to tell those who obey him that they don't need to worry about any of these things. Like a good mother, Christ has already thought about all these things for his travelling people, and in his mercy he has made provision for them all.

So here is one way to understand Christ's list of the things that characterize those who believe in Christ and obey him. Whatever roads the journey of their lives takes them on, the care of the Lord encompasses those who travel in his name.

Reformed Fundraising and Social Committee meets this Wednesday in the Church Hall at 7pm. Would you have the time and skills to help in this valuable activity? Please come along.

Please keep 5 minutes silence before the start of each Sunday Mass. The bell will ring 5 minutes before Mass to mark the start of silence. This creates a decompression chamber in which we acclimatise to the Sacred and come into God's presence.
